

RNP Launches New Programme "Pumau ki te rongo"

He Taonga te Reo is Radio Ngati Porou's new Te Reo Maori show specifically designed to educate and entertain mokopuna aged 5 years and under. He Taonga te Reo is a show where mokopuna can learn kupu hou, karakia, waiata, waiata tawhito, and more. He Taonga te Reo is a show about learning and having fun doing it. The objectives of He Taonga te Reo are to:

1. Promote, support and encourage the use and retention of Ngati Porou Te Reo Maori
2. Provide Kohanga reo with an alternate resource for their Te Reo Programs
3. Provide mokopuna at home with an interactive, vibrant and educational Te Reo program in order to foster Ngati Porou Te Reo Maori
4. Encourage mokopuna to use Te Reo in many forms ie. Oral language, reading, waiata

The show commenced broadcast on Monday 2nd October from 9:00am – 10:00am with the help of 4 mokopuna who were in the studio, and RNP's new Maori Announcer and He Taonga te Reo's anchor, John Tumanako Kururangi. John, otherwise known as "Choppy" has experience working with children under 5 years old, having worked for most of the year at Hinetapora Kohanga Reo in Ruatoria.
